TWO RIVAL GATHERINGS TOGETHER

The Turners of the Pittsburg district of the North American Turner Bund had a great rally in the Birmingham Turner Hall on the Southside yesterday. Fifteen societies, one from Pittsburg and Allegheny and the others from adjacent towns were represented, and the session lasted the whole day. During all the time the various rooms in the hall were crowded with guests. directly or indirectly interested in the proceedings. The occasion of the gathering was the meeting of the Turners of the dis trict, which occurs once in two months.

Mr. Eggers, the Birmingham teacher of gymnastics and athletics, called the active | Southside Market Hall, and began talking | All sorts of demands are made on his time members of the district together at 10 o'clock A. AFTER THEIR EXERCISE.

In the afternoon marching and wand exercises were taken up with piano accompaniment, and the exhibition was highly satisfactory to the large audience, to judge by the frequent applause which rang through

After the exercises were over chairs were brought in, and then Mr. Gottfried Ihsen, Chairman of the Committee on Spiritual Development, addressed the assembly on "The Platform of the North American Gymnastic Union." In the platform of their constitution it says:

We, the members of the gymnastic societies of the United States of America, propose by a union, under the name "The North American Gymnastic Union," to aid each other in rearing a people strong in both body and mind. We recognize in the dissemination of culture and the fostering of ethical and moral principles, the only means of effecting a thorough reform of social, religious and political life.

We strive for the development of the republican partials humans and recognized pasis. We strive for the development of the repub-lic on a truly humane and republican basis. We therefore oppose most decidedly every at-tempt to interfere with the liberty of con-science, and also all legislative encroachments that are hostile to the perfection and develop-ment of our free institutions.

The interpretation of these words, the speaker understood, was, that the Turner had to use his entire energy for the development of progress, of justice, of freedom and the enlightenment of the masses. Continu-

A DEFINITION OF LIBERTY.

It is the principle of every true Turner to be now, but they will not cast as many votes on the side of liberty in its broadest sense, socially, politically and religiously. To do this it is necessary for all of us to be constantly, and all of us, at our posts and do our duty in the interest of a free Republic like the United States, 1-

There is, for instance, the temperance move ment, which has been called into existence by hypocritical theologians and hysterical maids, until it has reached its climax in the tyranny, injustice, idiocy and dishonor of pro hibition. Like the famous phalanx of Epaminondas, you must oppose this movement, it is an imposition upon the principles of liberty and the rights of free citizens. Nobody has the right to urge the introduction of a law to prohibit a man from prosecuting his legitimate, hones; business, though it may be reguhated. The question of temperance can never be settled by law, but by education. Show the people by example the mistake of drunkenmeaner, but do not visit his faults and sins upon the beople who like to enjoy themselves in the circle of their friends.

Be of your any further attempt at the same rame.

After the address several songs were rendered by the singing sections of the various Turner societies.

About 6 o'clock the Turners all adjourned to a supper, which had been prepared by the ladies of the Birmingham Turverein. After supper a large number of the members and guests went across the street and attended the evening service of Rev. Gustav Lerch at the United Evangelical Church.

She Says the Amendment is Decreed by God. and Enlogizes Judge White.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, of Iowa, lectured co the prohibition amendment to a large audience in the Oakland Methodist Episcopal Church last evening. During her remarks

Men are better when they have some one to lean on. I know men who are quite proper in their own little church circle who are not quite so proper when they go down to New York. The cause of the failure in Massachusetts was that the good people depended too much on others. If the amendment fails here, the liquor traffic will be more offensive.

enth Avenue Hotel, but leaves for Phila-delphia this morning. She will be there for a week or longer, and will afterward travel through Chester, Bucks and other counties in the immediate vicinity of Philadelphia. She will return to Pittsburg one week before the 18th of June to give another series of lectures.

AT DRUIDEN HALL.

Mr. John Beinhauer Addresses the Anti-Prohibition Society. At the meeting of the Anti-Prohibition

Society of the Southside, at Druiden Hall, Carson street, last night a motion was carried that every member of the organization consider himself a committee of one and devote his energy and work to the defeat of the Constitutional amendment on June 18.

Mr. John Beinhauer, who was present, was asked to make a few remarks. He called attention to the fact that this was not a fight for the saloon keeper, but for the fundamental principle of man's rights. He compared the present struggle to the late war, stating that, while the Union soldiers had fought at that time for the liberation of people from physical bondage, the issue of to-day was: Should the mind of the people

The South Fork Club is Putting the Hotel in First-Class Shape.

The South Fork Club will open its club house June 27. Colonel Unger, who is interested in the hotel, expects to spend the entire summer there, and a more delightful spot than South Fork would be hard to find in the Allegheny mountains.

The clubmen, who are principally Pittsburgers, are improving the sanitary condi-tion of the place by putting in an extensive system of drainage. They are also introducing new water works.

It will be remembered that, toward the close of last season, an attack of typhoid fever broke out among the children. This year the clubmen are determined to make the resort as pure as the breezes that fan it from the lake.

A GENUINE MINSTREL.

Luke Schoolcraft Explains the Character of Real Minstrelsy.

Luke Schoolcraft, one of the old-time minstrels, was found yesterday leaning against the news stand in the Central Hotel. He has not changed much with the lapse of years, and is the same quiet gentleman off the stage that makes one's sides ache with laughter on it. He said:

Minstrelsy has made no strides, neither has it declined, but simply held its own. When declined, but simply held its own. When people go to see a real one or none at all. This idea of advertising with a band is a great mistake, and is not a part of the legitimate business.

Of late years too many innovations have been made that do not belong to minstrelsy. In a real minstrel band there should be no "white-face business," no powdered wigs and fancy costumes. When these are introduced the character of the show is changed, and they only detract from the charm.

Contrary to the dignity of this Commonwealth and the peace of Officer Harrison, Louis Leiheld knocked him kown at the Union depot yesterday, and then kicked him while down. This rather met with objections from a crowd of fair-play Americans, JACOB SPOHN, No. 2 Carson street. and Mr. Leiheid was lucky to reach Central station at all. Hereafter he will buy a foot-ball, or kick somebody with no friends, as the little amusement just cost $14 40.

More trouble at the corner of Grant and Second avenue. Henry Clagett and Jeal Jones went into Brady's and came out again. One of the gentlemen endeavored to tear up the pavement, and threatened to kill somebody with a paving stone. An officer requested them to move on, and they said they weren't moving just then. The officer made a motion, and they amended their statement by moving rapidly toward Central station. Eight dollars and forty cents, or 30 days,

A policeman was informed late Saturday night that a man was trying to burgle a place on New Grant street. A window was found open, and Mike Dickson was standing inside. He made a feeble attempt to explain his peculiar way of entering a house, with the usual bluff that he thought it was his own. As the officer is a married man, and has probably gone home himself that way on lodge nights, it pretty near worked. To be on the safe side, however, an information was made out. John Leberg drives an ice wagon, and consequently owns the town. He delayed Wylie avenue street cars, and a kick re-sulted; but of what importance is a street car in warm weather, compared with an ice wagon? John, it seems, dragged a piece of ice from his wagon, and it was so heavy it took him a long time to reach the sidewalk. He then began to laboriously chop up the ice, when the car driver's strenuous kick distracted his attention for a moment, and a newsie stole the ice and put it in his pocket. John was discharged, and everybody tipped their hats to him as he walked out

buying a home will take into account the surroundings and probabilities of enhancement of value; convenience to good improvements is a leading consideration; also rapid transit to and from the business part of the city; the quality of the houses in the neighborhood goes for a good deal; as to build or buy a handsome stone or brick residence and have interior houses go up afterward on adjoining lots detracts from the value of the first; to buy on a neatly paved street, with sewers, gas and water already laid, is immortant;
one then knows what the whole cost is, and has not to worry about the cost of future grading and paving. All these items and many more are covcred at the handsome new dwellings on Oakland Square (formerly Linden Grove), which need only be seen to be appreciated. The price is $6,500 and and $6,700, payable on easy terms, for elegant, thoroughly well built and commodious houses,
standing apart, on lots 3x100, and fitted with all the modern conveniences. All the houses front on asphaltum streets, and upon a handsome park planted with shade trees; old forest trees plentirully shade the neighborhood. The cable cars are now but six minutes' distant, and will be brought still nearer. These houses are rapidly selling, being pronounced bargains at present prices. Apply to SAMUEL W. BLAUK & CO., No. 98 Fourth
